HOW CAN PARENTS—Allow their children to cough and calmly say: "Oh! its only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by using BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

COUGH! AND COUGH! WHAT ON EARTH—Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? Its flow was only 15 gallons per minute formerly and it now flows at least 30 gallons per minute.

THE INDIAN MURDER.

Captain George and Two Witnesses to the Act in the City

Sunday's evening train brought the witnesses of the Indian murder recently committed on the Western Shoshone Reservation to the city to appear before the Grand Jury.

The facts of the case are very peculiar and have been given to the public in two or three different styles, but from information secured from Dr. J. J. Robertson, U. S. Physician at the Reservation, the APPEAL is able to give the following correct version:

Some time ago the Indian medicine man of the tribe died of pneumonia, and the superstition existing among the Indians led them to believe that he came to his death through the witchcraft of an old Indian woman in some way associated with the doctor.

Indians always thirst for revenge, and the proper thing for them to do, according to their belief, was to get the blood of the supposed sorceress as a balance to the doctor's demise, and a council was held.

The Indians claim that Capt. George was a portion of this doctor while he lived, and when he died the mutual attraction between the two was cut off, leaving Capt. George in an embarrassing condition, which could only be alleviated by the immediate death of the Indian woman.

The proposition was discussed according to parliamentary rule and it was finally decided to select a brave to murder the squaw or in some way bring about her death as soon as possible. To perform this deed a young warrior was chosen and strict conformity to law he agreed to do the thing up in good shape after having renewed his commission from Capt. George whose duty it was to await on him as a committee of one.

The chosen one was true to his word and while the squaw was engaged in her household duties, he crawled into the tent and stabbed her in the back. It soon spread over the reservation and the Indian was arrested and brought to Carson where his trial will be held. The witnesses are Piute Berry Wall and Straight Haired Jim Gebhardt.

The Grand Jury found a bill of manslaughter.

GATES TO BE OPENED.—When the waters of Tahoe rise seventy-three inches above low water mark, says the Truckee Republican, they will flood the wharves at McKinney's and Tahoe City. The lake has now risen thirty inches, and if the tremendous quantity of snow now on the mountains should melt suddenly great damage would result. The gates at the outlet could not permit the water to escape fast enough to prevent the flooding of valuable property. The Donner Boom & Lumber Co. have been notified that that they will be held responsible for all damage. They have therefore issued orders to have the gates raised at the first approach of danger. It is a pity that any of the water should be wasted, for what could be stored this season would bridge over two or three dry years.

ADVERTISED LIST.—Ladies list Sophie Hogrefe, Mary I. Hall, Sarah E. Haskins, E. B. Fowl. Gentlemen list R. Barshon, J. F. Greggs, Pastor Baptist Church, Alex. Grhy, F. K. Campbell, 2, F. Miller, S. D. Darg, U. T. Tarrell, Jno. Dealy, Rev. M. Watson, C. Girard.

CLEVELAND'S MINSTRELS.—When the minstrels landed in Carson yesterday the hoodlum contingent went wild and followed the burnt cork artists down to the Arlington and then blocked the doorway to get a glimpse of the japs and the end men. In the afternoon, accompanied by a fine band, the company made a splendid showing on the street. At the Opera House they rendered a performance which must be seen to be appreciated.

A MUSICIAN IN CAMP.—Sunday evening as an APPEAL reporter strolled into the Arlington House, he was met by one of Dipple's 6x9 smiles as the clerk beckoned to come near and nail a fact. "Say," he remarked, "Do you like good piano music?" This question was answered in the affirmative and the reporter was thereupon introduced to a neat, well dressed pleasant gentleman who lays claim to the name of Maurice Berger. He was immediately besieged by Dipple who with winning smiles and coquetish actions induced Mr. Berger to admit that he could play. This was enough and before long all the music lovers in the room were in the swim and Prof. Berger was hauled up to the parlor and locked in with his select audience. He sat down to the piano, glanced at the Arlington House rate card for inspiration and struck a few chords. From the first few notes he blended into classical music, the giddy waltz, the sympathetic melodies and finally filled the room with the dying strains of Travatore. His execution was something marvelous and his attitude was complete rest. Mr. Berger will leave tomorrow and those who have not had the pleasure of listening to his music are to be pitied. He represents Feigenbaum & Co. of San Francisco, dealers in fancy goods, notions and toys and if all their drummers are as interesting and sociable as Mr. Berger, the firm is to be congratulated. G. J. Schilach, representing Triest & Co., the well known hat makers, is his traveling companion and the two together make friends wherever they go.

LOOKED LIKE A FAKE.—The fight in San Francisco, Wednesday night, between Choyinski and Wilson (colored), the latter weighing twenty pounds in excess of his opponent, was won by Choyinski in the second round. Or, rather, in the second round Wilson was knocked down, and his head striking the floor he remained down until counted out. Wilson never before lost a battle. Rumors of a job were circulated among sporting men Wednesday, and it is believed Wilson seized upon the opportunity afforded by striking his head to fill the contract. The bookmakers and gamblers generally are killing the Athletic Clubs more surely than would laws and ordinances.

PREPARING FOR THE WATER SUIT.—The Silver State says that General Clarke and a civil engineer have been up the river taking observations and making surveys, preparatory to the trial of the suits brought by George D. Bliss against Dunphy, Grayson and others, claiming water rights above his ranch on the Humboldt. Preparations are also being made by those interested in the suit brought by Marker Brothers, and others to adjudicate priorities of water rights.

WARREN JUNIOR ELECTION.—At a meeting of the Warren Junior Hose Company, the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months: Foreman, Joe Sterns; 1st Asst. Fred Fellows; 2nd Asst. John Epstine; President, Pearl Davis; Secretary, Ed. Dupuis; Treasurer, James Benton.

GUITAR LESSONS.—S. A. Liggins the guitarist, is now prepared to take a class of pupils and instruct them in guitar playing.
